Contents

List of Figures ix
Acknowledgments xi
Abbreviations xiii

Introduction: Colonialism, Occupation, and the Burden of Tutelage 1

1 “Among a Tropical People”: Little Brown Brothers, Individual Liberty, and Self-Government 33

2 Americanism and Filipino Nationalism in English Readers in the Philippines, 1905–1932 61

3 Unhomeliness and Educational Anxieties in the Neocolonial Philippines: Tiempo and Cordero-Fernando 89

4 Articulations of Decolonial Thinking and Collective Subjectivity in Bulosan, Santos, and Linmark 109

5 Mapping the Japanese Tutelary Subject in the Classroom and Brides Schools 155
6  Mourning, Nationalism, and Historical Memory in Kojima, Shinoda, Albery, Houston, and Otsuka  201

7  Occupation Tutelage and the Pragmatics of Individual Memory  229

Epilogue: The War on Terror and Education for Democracy  249

Notes  259

Works Cited  269

Index  287