Contents

Acknowledgments ix
Introduction 1

PART ONE: THE HOME-TOWN TEAMS

The Eagles
   Bednarik’s Legend Etched in Concrete 32
   Vince Papale Ain’t Just Another Bum from the Neighborhood Anymore 36
   Wilbert Has a Mom Who Frets 45
   “A Real Philadelphia Kind of Win” 51
   The New Dick Vermeil—Who Is He? 55
   Introducing Tommy McDonald at the Pro Football Hall of Fame 58
   Reggie White 60

The Phillies
   Maddox Takes Ride of His Life 64
   Walking into the Series Spotlight 67
   Winning Makes It All Worthwhile 70
   McGraw’s Retirement Tugs at Heartstrings 74
   The End Is Here 78
   Lieberthal Receiving Good Reviews 81

The Flyers
   For Hard-Luck Parent, Another Damaging Blow 88
   “The Officials Killed Us,” Snider Sizzles 91
   Stickle: It Could Have Been Worse 95
   In Flin Flon, They Knew He’d Be Great 98
   Hextall’s Goal Always Was to Be in Goal 101
   They’re Already Champions 108

The Sixers
   Moses Makes His Private Life Most Valuable 112
   This One’s for You, Jack McMahon 119
   Erving Can’t Make Sense of It All 122
   Barkley Uncomfortable with Life in the Glare of the Spotlight 125
PART TWO: AMERICAN SPORTS AT HOME AND IN THE WORLD

Football
Elevating Frankford 134
The Black Athlete: Jackie Robinson? He Wasn’t the First 140
Larry Brown: King of the Hill 143
Just a Truck Drivin’ Man 148
“America’s Team”: Cowboys Corral a Nation 156
Montana Magic 162
Passing of the Chief Marks the End of an Era 170
The Shulas Always Have Felt at Home near the Gridiron 173

Baseball
The 500 Club 182
Munson: A Man of No Frills 198
“Fernando Has Been Touched by God” 201
Aaron’s Numbers Speak for Him 207

Olympics
Thorpe Nets Golden Debt 212
Decker Runs Armed with a Killer Instinct 220
Teti Always Seems to Stand Out on Rowing Team 229
Huber Junks Old Diet for Taste of Gold 233

1980—The Year That Was
Is Rosie a Real Winner? 243
Jack Nicklaus: Fans’ Roar Tells Jack He’s Back 247
Duran Calls It Quits 250
Jim Plunkett’s Journey Ends in Triumph 254

PART THREE: FACTS AND OPINION

Profiles
Water Boy Reaches the Hall of Fame 262
Hard Man to Please, Tough Man to Beat 265
Sugar Ray Pulls People Together 270
Jim Tyrer Story Ultimate Tragedy 276
Their Hearts Belong to Daddy Mass 282
Alcorn’s Battle Over 289
The Mild Side of Broadway 293
Best of All Time? Bird’s Genius Puts Him in Rarefied Air 303
Climbing Capitol Hill 310
Abolition of Boxing Wouldn’t Be Jake 317
For Magee, Winning’s a Science 320
“I’m Not a Whiner” 327

Opinion
Phillies Are Rose-less and Red-faced 334
Woody Hayes Doesn’t Merit an Appreciative Audience 337
The Real World of Professional Football 340
A Sense of Perspective 344
NFL Should Sack Tose 348
Flyers’ Shining Moment Tarnished before Game 351
Working Up a Strong Hate 354

Afterword 359
Index 371